

1. ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS

Where do butterflies live ? _____

Describe, in short, what butterflies look like? _____

How can you tell butterflies and moths apart ? _____

How do butterflies and moths get their food? _____

Where do butterflies and moths go to during winter ? _____

Where do female butterflies lay their eggs? _____

What are caterpillars ? _____

What happens to a caterpillar after a short time? _____

Where do they rest and for how long? _____

What do adult butterflies look like when they come out of resting ? _____

How long do they live? _____

How do butterflies and moths protect themselves? _____

2. EXPLAIN IN ENGLISH

cocoon _____

abdomen _____

migrate _____

log _____ seed _____

leg _____

thorax _____

3. TRUE OR FALSE

	T	F
All butterflies live in cold regions.
The scales give butterflies their special colours.
Some butterflies have wings that are 30 cm long.
The feelers of moths are thinner than those of butterflies.
Butterflies are usually more colourful than moths
Most moths and butterflies are active during the daytime.
Sometimes butterflies eat things that lie on the ground.
Butterfly eggs hatch into caterpillars.
A caterpillar eats a lot and loses its skin.
The resting stage of a caterpillar is called larva.
Young adults fan their wings to get ready to fly.
Butterflies can live up to ten years.
Some species have strange marks on their bodies.
Birds are the biggest enemies of butterflies and moths.

4. FIND 12 WORDS THAT HAVE TO DO WITH BUTTERFLIES AND MOTHS !
(LOOK FOR THESE DIRECTIONS : → ↓ ↙ ↘)

F K T O O O B Q J M A N N L
K Y A W F Q Z A B D O M E N
S C A L E S O U E D G T K K
X N A N E C T A R J F D H V
Y S E T L T G B K X X H B G
Q M E L E G G R C C N H C T
Y E J R R R S T Y A U Q C E
A L F Z G E P W F O Z Z M I
A L W K D E G I O N A M M J
Y E A J C L D N L A R V A T
B Z S K E H H G T L E U I V
L A W E R A Q D O H A J D M
F W W Y L L D X X W E R N O
Y N C V C Q M D A Q J Z R D