

MATCH THE WORDS WITH THE DEFINITIONS

A	tame	F	someone who cares for the animals
B	admission	M	large area covered with wild grass
C	cage	D	money that you give an organization in order to help them
D	donation	H	people who see that nothing dangerous happens
E	employee	P	to stay alive; keep on living
F	keeper	R	animal that drinks milk from its mother when it is young
G	menagerie	A	to train a wild animal not to attack you
H	security personnel	J	something that keeps people away from other things
I	supplement	N	big hole in the ground where animals are sometimes kept
J	barrier	S	the world around us
K	extinct	G	a group of wild animals kept privately or for the public to see
L	encounter	O	rare, not enough of something
M	grassland	U	very big
N	pit	B	you have to pay in order to get into a place
O	scarce	I	something that you add to food to make it better
P	survive	L	meet, come across
Q	research	T	someone who is the supervisor of a museum or zoo
R	mammal	C	structure made of steel in which animals are kept
S	environment	K	die out
T	curator	Q	to do work in order to find out more about something
U	huge	E	a person who works for someone else

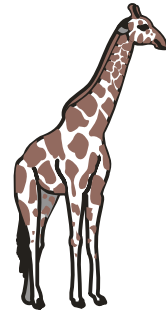

1. WRITE THE NAMES OF THE ANIMALS FROM THE BOX!

ANTELOPE

BEAR

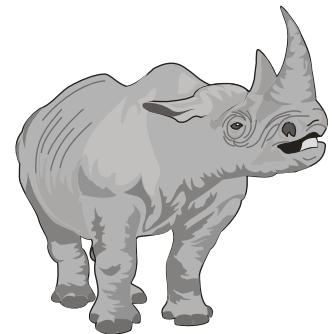

GIRAFFE

KOALA

PANDA

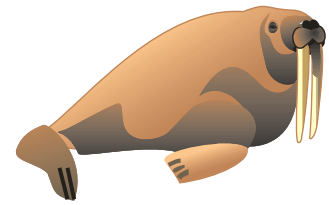

RHINOCEROS

TIGER

ZEBRA

WALRUS

CROCODILE

SNAKE

PENGUIN

RHINOCEROS -KOALA- PANDA - TIGER- WALRUS -ANTELOPE -GIRAFFE -ZEBRA
-SNAKE - CROCODILE - BEAR - PENGUIN

2. MATCH TWO PARTS FROM EACH SECTION TO FORM A SENTENCE!

Zoos give some endangered animals	that is like the one animals find in nature
Glass plates and other barriers are used	to care for the everyday needs of the animals
Zoos try to create an environment	feed them and clean their cages
Zoologists study the behavior of animals	as well as donation and grants.
Keepers care for animals,	to show how rich they were
Zoos get their money from admission	a place to survive
Animals get vitamins and other supplements	the work of all his employees
Zoos need a large staff	and try to learn more about them
Ancient emperors had large zoos	to separate animals from visitors.
A curator manages and supervises	to keep them healthy

Zoos give some endangered animals a place to survive

Glass plates and other barriers are used to separate animals form visitors

Zoos try to create an environment that is like the one animals find in nature

Zoologists study the behavior of animals and try to learn more about them

Keepers care for animals, feed them and clean their cages.

Zoos get their money from admission as well as donation and grants.

Animals get vitamins and other supplements to keep them healthy.

Zoos need a large staff to care for the everyday needs of the animals

Ancient emperors had large zoos to show how rich they were

A curator manages and supervises the work of all his employees