

The Falling Dollar - Exercises

1 ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS IN YOUR OWN WORDS !

How was the Canadian dollar's value compared to the value of the American dollar ? How is it today?

Who decides what the dollar is worth ? _____

How does the dollar compare with the euro? _____

What will European tourists find out when they come to America? _____

What will the weak dollar do to American goods that are sold overseas? _____

2 TRUE OR FALSE ?

	T	F
The Canadian dollar was always worth more than the American dollar American goods will become cheaper in other countries
American goods will become cheaper in Canada.
Many people don't want to trade dollars any more.
The value of the dollar is at its lowest point compared with the euro
The falling dollar is bad for America's tourism.

3 MATCH THE WORDS WITH THE DEFINITIONS

A	attraction
B	eventually
C	goods
D	slump
E	swap
F	trade
G	valuable

	as time goes on to be expensive and worth a lot exchange
	a famous place that tourists want to visit to buy and sell something if something is at a bad level or in a bad condition things that are produced so that they can be sold overseas

4 UNSCRAMBLE THE WORDS FROM THE TEXT

OEOYNMC - _____

SVSOREEA - _____

LADLRO - _____

USPML - _____

RTATNTCIOA - _____

VLTLAEERR - _____

PWSA - _____

OVAANTIC - _____

RATKME - _____