

2 TRUE OR FALSE?

| | T | F |
|--|---|---|
| Some types of euthanasia are legal in Belgium and the Netherlands, | ✓ | |
| Passive euthanasia means that an ill person does not get medicine or treatment that lets him stay alive. | ✓ | |
| Giving a person morphine makes them live longer. | | ✓ |
| Doctors always decide when and if euthanasia is carried out. | | ✓ |
| Terry Schiavo's husband wanted her to stay alive as long as possible. | | ✓ |
| Doctors must swear an oath that forbids them to kill people. | ✓ | |
| The Roman Catholic church is very liberal on euthanasia. | | ✓ |
| Euthanasia is forbidden in Islam. | ✓ | |

3 MATCH THE WORDS WITH THE DEFINITIONS

| | |
|---|--------------|
| A | physical |
| B | oath |
| C | immoral |
| D | battle |
| E | chemotherapy |
| F | legal |
| G | promote |
| H | will |
| I | incurable |
| J | succeed in |

| | |
|---|---|
| B | a formal promise |
| F | allowed in a country or in court |
| D | fight |
| G | to be for something |
| H | document that tells someone what you want |
| A | everything about the body |
| I | deadly |
| C | behaviour that people do not accept |
| J | to reach what you want |
| E | treatment you get when you suffer from cancer |

4 CROSSWORD

