

1 ANSWER THE QUESTIONS IN YOUR OWN WORDS!

Who can become a resident of Second Life? _____

Who was Second Life founded by? _____

How can you buy land in Second Life? _____

Where do new residents start in Second Life? What do they do there? _____

What can an avatar be? _____

How can you move around in Second Life? _____

How can residents communicate with each other? _____

What kind of objects can you create and how do you do that? _____

How many users are there in Second Life? _____

Where do the players of Second Life come from? _____

Name some of the rules you must mind as a member:

Where can teenagers log on to? _____

What form of money does Second Life have? _____

Why are politicians starting to use Second Life? _____

Name some of the possible dangers of Second Life: _____

2 TRUE OR FALSE?

	T	F
You need a special viewer on your PC to enter Second Life .
New residents must pay a small membership fee when they start Second Life .
An avatar can always be changed.
An avatar must always be a person.
Flying is the fastest way of travel in Second Life .
You can practice building your own objects in the sandbox.
You cannot go everywhere you want to in Second Life .
Most of the users of Second Life are men.
In Second Life you are not allowed give information about other people.
Most people who have registered come back after their first visit.
Young people are not allowed to enter the same world as adults.
The Linden dollar is worth more than the US dollar.
You can take a college or university course in Second Life .
Second Life is very easy to learn.

3 EXPLAIN IN ENGLISH!

avatar _____

virtual _____ resident _____

membership fee _____

user account _____

log on _____ sandbox _____

4 CROSSWORD

Across

4. money you must pay regularly to use something
8. liberty
9. to make known to others, show
10. picture that you use to identify yourself in a computer game
12. to type words into a box in order to communicate with someone
14. people in general
15. to make create or draw a new object
16. teenager or young adult

Down

1. a member of Second Life
2. list of objects you can choose from
3. place in Second Life where you can practice
5. a law that tells you how you must play a game
6. forbidden; a place where you are not allowed to go to
7. the way you look
11. not real
13. program with which you can see special things on a computer

5 DESIGN YOUR OWN AVATAR AND DESCRIBE IT IN SHORT!

DESCRIPTION

